SOCAR: new contribution to support IP's network

Rome, October 2, 2026 – SOCAR announces today a new and significant initiative to support the agricultural and fishing sectors served by IP, offering a significant discount on the price of fuel for the agricultural and motorized fishing sectors

The discount will take effect starting Monday, October 5, for all customers in the two sectors already served by IP and will remain in effect until October 31, with the possibility of further extension

This is a concrete initiative in support of two strategic sectors for the Country: agriculture and fishing are pillars of the national economy and the Italian productive sector, essential for food security, the stability of production chains. and the quality of the products that represent Italian excellence worldwide.

With this initiative, SOCAR reaffirms its closeness to Italy in concrete terms, confirming its tangible commitment to supporting sectors that are fundamental for the country.
